

Carleton University – School of Mathematics and Statistics
STAT 2507 and BIT 2000 – Test 1 – Fall 2020
Saturday, October 17, 7:00pm to 8:30pm EDT

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Your test must be uploaded to the course website on CULearn as a single PDF file by 9:00pm EDT (Ottawa Time). No other file types will be accepted. Technical issues are not an excuse, so don't wait until the deadline to submit. You have 30 minutes to scan, use them properly.
2. Assignments submitted between 9:00pm and 9:30pm will be accepted with a penalty. The penalty is a deduction of 8.33% for every 5 minutes (between 0 to 5, 8.33%, between 5 to 10, 16.67%....etc).
3. The document should be in the proper orientation so as not to require rotation. The document must be of sufficient resolution and writing must be legible. Pictures of your work are NOT an acceptable substitute for a scan.
4. You must show and explain all of your work. This includes explicitly defining random variables where necessary, writing out any formula that you use, and explaining your reasoning where applicable. No credit will be given for answers without justification.
5. When you save your PDF file, save it with the format:
LastName.StudentNumber.T1.pdf.
6. You must sign the oath below and include it with your assignment.
7. PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS NOT AN OPEN BOOK TEST . You are only authorized to use the formula sheet and a non-graphing, non-programmable calculator.

OATH

I certify that the work I am submitting is entirely my own, and that I have complied with all expectations and prohibitions set by the course instructor(s). In particular, in writing this exam, I confirm that I have not used any unauthorized or unsourced materials, engaged in any unauthorized co-operation or collaboration, and/or used any materials not written solely by me or written any materials for sharing with or use by others. I understand that any breach of these terms, or breach from the terms of the Academic Integrity Policy and/or the express instructions of my instructor, will render me subject to the terms of Carleton University's Academic Integrity Policy.
